

How have you shown Mercy today?

Mercy:
the bridge that connects God and man,
opening our hearts
to the hope
of being loved forever
despite
our sinfulness.
-Pope Francis

Pope Francis has a great conviction about mercy, and he wanted to make sure the Church received and lived out God's message of Mercy. He has called for a Year of Mercy to help us recognize a simple but dynamic relationship: We are able to give mercy to others if we are able to receive mercy from God.

- ♥ Think of ways you can show mercy towards others and continue to form the word cloud using the papers provided

Mercy:

the bridge

that connects

God and man,

opening our hearts

to the hope

of being loved forever

despite

our sinfulness.

—Pope Francis

forgiveness

compassion

patience

charity

Mercy:

the bridge that connects

God and man,

opening our hearts

to the hope

of being loved forever

despite our sinfulness.

—Pope Francis

Help the people who have trouble with honey Stay with someone who lost a family member in my friends. Help the poor and help you well Thank you for everything

Love

